 - 2) The accompanying parent may receive a wristband at check-in in order to walk their dancer(s) to the dressing room upstairs. No other family members or guests are allowed backstage for safety reasons.
 - 3) Upon arrival at the dressing room, the dancer(s) will be placed with her class. The parent with the wristband will go back downstairs to exit the same way she entered, and will then walk around to the front of the building to enter the theater and watch the dress rehearsal and/or performance.

- 1) Dancers may be picked up in the dressing room by the parent wearing the wristband. Other family members and guests should wait in the Eisemann Center lobby.
 - 2) All dancers must check out at the same table where they checked in. Wristband parents and dancers should then walk around to the front of the building to enter the theater lobby to meet the rest of their family members and guests (see map).
